Easton, MD, November 2, 2017: The all new Calico Toys and Games (CTG) is being built and stocked for the Holiday and Christmas season.

The official fully (almost) stocked opening of Calico Toys and Games will be Friday, November 24th, but you can come anytime to brose and buy brand new toys at a discounted price of 25% off retail. Our puzzles, Buyers Choice Advent calendars. Potpourri and candles will also be 25% off.

The key for the success of any retail business in Easton and Talbot County, is for the local residents to visit and shop. In today's environment of Internet and Amazon shopping small retail establishments are doomed unless customers perceive a price and/or services advantage. Calico Toys and Games will always provide high quality toys and games at a discount of at least 15% off the recommended retail price. In addition, CTG will always provide FREE Gift Wrapping.

Calico Toys and Games was a very successful business in St. Michaels, Maryland until Amazon became the craze, rents edged higher, and many locals forgot we were there. Many of the same locals and many tourists were very unhappy to find CTG had closed when last Christmas rolled around.

All of the fun is back now in Easton, Maryland. Calico Toys & Games is now located at Le Hatchery Galleria at 125 Kemp Lane with its own double glass door entry on the Kemp Lane side of the building.

FUN Science

Calico Toys and Games will have many of the same toys and children’s books that it carried in St. Michaels, but it will be more focused on educational toys for all ages, creativity for girls and boys, games and puzzles for all ages. We want you to be able to play and experience the fun, so there will be several play stations set up for that purpose.

Just in time for Christmas. Bring the kids to see Santa on most Saturdays in December.

On Saturday, December 2nd CTG will host a paint date for kids 10am-noon where they will be able to paint an image of a fun reindeer. Santa will judge the reindeer art, and the winner will receive a gift certificate from Calico Toys and Games.

CTG is getting new product in every day to get ready for your shopping needs in the Holiday season.

We hope you find your new Toy store a great place you will want to return over and over for your FUN needs.

And... don't forget... FREE GIFT WRAPPING year round.

In addition to Toys and Games, CTG has a great selection of Jigsaw puzzles, candles, potpourri and melts to help bring a holiday scent to your home or work place.
